Chief Minister inaugurates newly constructed Town Hall at Bishalgarh

Town halls are also being constructed in the sub-divisional towns of the state: CM

Today, the rural people can also enjoy the facilities of the city because of the welfare-oriented mindset of the state government. Town halls with advanced facilities are now being constructed not only in Agartala but also in other sub-divisional towns of the state. Chief Minister Professor (Dr.) Manik Saha said this while inaugurating the newly constructed Bishalgarh Town Hall yesterday. Virtually he also laid the foundation stone of Bishalgarh Municipal Council's new office building yesterday. Rs. 29 crore 9 lakh 32 thousand has been spent on the construction of Bishalgarh town hall.

Inaugurating the newly constructed town hall, Chief Minister Professor (Dr.) Manik Saha expressed hope that this town hall will become one of the fields of arts and culture in future. He said that this town hall will also play an important role in developing the traditional mixed culture of the state. As a result, a healthy and beautiful cultural environment will be developed in the sub-division. The current government is working to provide regular facilities to the marginalised people of the state. This government is implementing different development plans in the direction of reducing the dependence on city so that people can take advantage of different opportunities locally.

At the programme, Deputy Chief Minister Jishnu Dev Varma said that this government is working for the overall development of the people by staying alongside the people. The state government is implementing different developmental plans for the socio-economic, cultural and mental development of the people of the state. Bishalgarh Municipal Council Chairperson Anjan Purkayastha presided over the programme. Among others present in the programme were Urban Development Corporation Limited's Managing Director Shailesh Yadav, Chief General Manager of NBCC Kedarnath Sarkar, Sepahijala District Superintendent of Police Jagdeeswar Reddy, Additional District Magistrate Subhashis Bandyopadhyay and others.
