

Government of Tripura
Directorate of Information and Cultural Affairs

S -6781

Agartala, 26th November, 2021

Preamble read at Secretariat on Samvidhan Diwas

May today's theme be empowered and self-reliant Tripura: CM

Constitution Day has been celebrated in the state along with the nation in a befitting manner at the Secretariat. Chief Minister Biplab Kumar Deb, Deputy Chief Minister Jishnu Dev Varma, Revenue Minister Narendra Chandra Debbarma, Education Minister Ratan Lal Nath, Information and Cultural Affairs Minister Sushanta Chowdhury, Transport Minister Pranajit Singha Roy, Food Minister Manoj Kanti Deb, Cooperative Minister Ram Prasad Pal, Tribal Welfare Minister Mevar Kumar Jamatia and secretaries of different departments graced the programme. Chief Minister Biplab Kumar Deb on the occasion of Constitution Day made everyone present in the programme read the preamble. Chief Minister while addressing the media said, Prime Minister today in the Parliament has appealed everyone to perform their duties following the footsteps of Dr. B.R Ambedkar to strengthen the Constitution of India regardless of communal and religious difference. Prime Minister's Sabka Sath, Sabka Vishwas is a reflection of Baba Saheb Ambedkar's guidance. He hoped that the people of the state may follow his steps towards building empowered and self-reliant Tripura. He assured that the present state government will always be making efforts to strengthen every system in the Constitution and the Constitution itself.
