Teliamura Municipal Council Grants Housing Permissions
Under Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana-Urban

In a significant boost to urban housing development, 106 beneficiaries in the Teliamura Municipality area have been granted permission to construct permanent residences under the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana-Urban (PMAY-U) scheme. The ceremony, marking the ninth anniversary of the scheme, was held yesterday at the Ashwini Kumar Ghosh Community Hall in Teliamura. The event saw the distribution of sanction letters to the beneficiaries under the 7th Detailed Project Report (DPR) of the PMAY-U scheme. Rupak Sarkar, Chairperson of Teliamura Municipal Council, presided as the Chief Guest, while Madhusudan Roy, Vice Chairperson of the municipality, led the proceedings. Councilors from various wards of the municipality were also present.

In his opening remarks, Chairperson Sarkar emphasized the state government's commitment to ensuring that government project benefits reach the rightful recipients, irrespective of political affiliations. The Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the Municipal Council, Amit Roy Chowdhury, delivered the welcome speech, highlighting the scheme's target of constructing 111 pucca houses in the seventh DPR. He noted that each residence under this scheme will cost approximately ₹1,66,666, with construction expected to be completed by December.
