Deputy CM attends distribution of agriculture machineries

The government is working for increasing income of people in the state: Deputy CM

The present state government has taken special initiatives to build self-reliant Tripura. In this regard, numerous plans have been taken up, enunciated Deputy Chief Minister Jishnu Dev Varma after inaugurating agriculture machineries distribution programme among beneficiaries at Brajapur High School premise in Charilam on December 22. He said, the state government is working with the goal to increase people's income in the state. The main objective of this programme is the socio-economic growth of people living in rural areas. With the help of sewing machines, rural women can become financially independent. The programme was presided over by President of agriculture-related standing committee of Sepahijala Zila Parishad Biswajit Saha. Welcome speech was delivered by Deputy Director of Agriculture department Dr. Dilip Das. Other dignitaries present in the programme were Sabhadhipati of Sepahijala Zila Parishad Supriya Das (Dutta), Chairman of Charilam Panchayat Samiti Rakhi Kar Das, Additional District Magistrate of Sepahijala district Subhashish Bandhopadhyay, Additional Sub-divisional Magistrate of Bishalgarh sub-division Tridip Sarkar.

With the initiative of Agriculture & Farmer's Welfare department under Integrated Water Shed Management Project (IWMP), different agriculture machineries were distributed to 1 thousand 317 beneficiaries in the programme. Among them, 900 beneficiaries were distributed crop cutting machines, 300 beneficiaries were distributed sewing machines, 113 beneficiaries were distributed spray machines and 4 beneficiaries were distributed instruments.
