All-Party Meeting Held in Khowai Ahead of Three-Tier Panchayat Election 2024

In preparation for the upcoming three-tier Panchayat Election 2024, an all-party meeting was convened yesterday in Khowai. District Magistrate Chandni Chandran presided over the meeting, which saw the participation of representatives from the BJP, INC, CPI(M), and Tipra Motha Dal. Key officials present included District Police Superintendent Dr. Ramesh Yadav, Additional District Magistrate Abhijit Chakraborty, and Senior Deputy Magistrate Parimal Sarkar, among others. During the meeting, District Magistrate emphasized the importance of conducting the elections in strict adherence to the guidelines laid out by the State Election Commission. Khowai district is home to 1,15,147 voters, comprising 58,389 male voters and 46,751 female voters. The District Magistrate urged all political parties to ensure a smooth and orderly election process, underscoring the collective responsibility to uphold democratic principles and maintain peace throughout the electoral period.
