Van Mahotsav 2024 Celebrated by Land Records & Settlement

The Directorate of Land Records and Settlement organized Van Mahotsav 2024 today. The event took place at the Directorate's office in Palace Compound, Agartala, at 8:00 AM. The program commenced with the arrival of the Special Guest, Brijesh Pandey, Secretary of the Revenue Department, Government of Tripura. The Director of Land Records and Settlement, along with the Secretary of the Revenue Department, addressed the gathering. They emphasized the importance of plantation in preserving the environment and promoting sustainable development. They highlighted the significance of biodiversity conservation as a crucial step towards maintaining ecological balance. An appeal was made to all staff members of the Directorate of Land Records and Settlement (DLRS) to plant at least two trees during the planting season and ensure their survivability. This initiative aims to foster a collective effort towards protecting Mother Nature. The program concluded with the plantation of ten fruit-bearing saplings within the premises of the Directorate's office.
