

been started through sex-sorted semen to increase milk production of the state with the increase in the number of female calves. To increase the milk production, so far total 119 Dairy Cooperative Societies were set up in the state, among which 14 societies are being run by women.

The Chief Minister said, doubling state farmer's income is the ultimate goal of the government. The state government has been working to achieve this goal giving priority to the development of agriculture, animal resources, fisheries, dairy and other primary sectors and to generate income in every household through different schemes of different departments.

Secretary of education and power department Brijesh Pandey informed in the meeting that the power department has taken initiative to generate power through the use of renewable energy in every government building and public places according to the state government's Vision Document.

The Principal Secretaries and Secretaries of different departments briefed about the plans implemented and to be implemented under the state government's Vision Document in the review meeting. Deputy Chief Minister Jishnu Dev Varma, Chief Secretary Kumar Alok were also present in the meeting.

*****