

Mizo, Halam, Chakma, Bishnupriya and Manipuri languages. In this regard, an initiative has been taken up to start a minor research program in the state.

After the inauguration of the Online Kokborok Speaking Course, Education Minister interacted with the trainees. He said, the trainees will be given certificates after the completion of their course. MLA and Chairman of Advisory Committee for development of Kokborok language development Atul Debbarma also delivered speech in the inaugural programme. Welcome speech was delivered by the Director of Kokborok & Minority Languages department Nagendra Debbarma. Others present were Deputy Director Sabyasachi Singh and other officials of the department.
