

Agartala, 11th February, 2022

Education Minister pays tribute to Lata Mangeshkar in Mohanpur
Cultural heritage keeps us tied to one string: Education Minister

We have to keep the cultural heritage of the state alive. Our cultural heritage keeps us tied to one string. The society will stay alive only when the culture stays alive. Any noble society cannot be imagined without the presence of culture, enunciated Education Minister Ratan Lal Nath in a programme organized by Mohanpur Cultural Branch to pay tribute to Late singer Lata Mangeshkar at Mohanpur Municipal Council campus yesterday. He said, there is hardly anyone who does not like music or flowers. Music plays important part in our lives. Some music helps us to forget our sorrows. Lata Mangeshkar was a great personality. She lives in everyone's heart in the country. People from all over the world know her with different names- Nightingale of India, Queen of Melody etc.

Vice-President of Tripura Cricket Association Joy Lal Das, Agriculture Supervisor Dr. Uttam Saha, Journalist Suman Mahalanbish, advocate Arabinda Deb, retired teacher Swapan Dhar spoke about the singer's life in the programme. Welcome speech was delivered by Convener of Mohanpur Cultural Branch Sanjib Saha. Other dignitaries present in the programme were Chairperson of Mohanpur Municipal Council Anita Debnath, and Chairman of Mohanpur Panchayat Samiti Rina Debbarma. All the guests paid floral tribute to the image of Late Singer Lata Mangeshkar.
