

CM Covid Special Relief Package launched in Belonia today

Pic. by Rajesh Debnath, ICO

The Chief Minister Covid Special Relief Package has been ceremonially inaugurated at Agnibina community hall of Belonia today. MLA Arun Chandra Bhowmik inaugurated this sub-division level programme. Speaking on this occasion he urged all to comply with COVID guidelines. The programme was also attended by DM in charge of South district Suresh Chandra Das, senior deputy magistrate Sudhangshu Sarkar and other dignitaries.

In this inaugural programme food packets were handed over to 30 Antyodaya and Priority Group families. Each packet contained 2 kg masoor dal, 1 litre mustard oil, 3 kg potato, 1 kg salt, 2 kg. onion, 500 gm soyabean, 250 gm turmeric powder and 100 gm cumin powder. The said beneficiaries have also received 5 kg free rice each from the ration shops under the said scheme. A total of 29,440 beneficiaries will be covered in Belonia sub-division under this scheme.

Massive initiative by Amarpur fishery supervisor's office

Various development programmes have been taken up by the office of fishery supervisor, Amarpur during the 2021-22 financial year. For the socio-economic development of poor in Amarpur subdivision fish fingerlings will be distributed among 1,327 families and one-day training will also be imparted under the Chief Minister Swanirbhar Yojana. Each beneficiary family will receive 500 fingerlings. For this purpose Rs. 10,88,140 will be spent. In addition, under the department's own scheme, assistance will be given for fish farming in different water bodies, and to co-operative or self-help groups. In this initiative also 565 people will benefit, as fingerling, lime and fish feed will also be provided. To implement this Rs. 25.99 lakh will be spent. Fishery supervisor Ajoy Das has divulged this information recently.

PRESS jackets distributed in Gomati

PRESS jackets were distributed among the working journalists at a special programme organized at the Gomati district ICA office today. The programme was organized by the Gomati district committee of Tripura Journalists' Union with the help of district ICA office, Gomati. Inaugurating the programme the agriculture and farmers' welfare minister Pranajit Singha Roy said, the state government has taken various measures for the welfare of journalists. This PRESS jacket is being given to facilitate their professional performance. Welcome address was delivered by the secretary of Gomati district committee of Tripura Journalists' Union Ratan De. .

Health camp held at Iswaraipara in Dhalai district

A health camp was held at Iswaraipara under Ruhidapara health sub-centre attached to Jagabandhupara primary health centre in Dhalai district on June 4. Through this health camp health care services were provided to the children, pregnant women, and other people of the area. Free medicines were given to 25 people. The participants were also advised to avail of different COVID and other health related facilities of the health department. In case of emergency specially pregnant women and new born babies were advised to contact the local ASHA workers. This information has been provided on the part of the National Health Mission in a press release.

Anti-malaria programme launched in Dhalai district

In order to minimize the impact of malaria and identify infected cases quickly malaria detection programmes have been started in different malaria prone areas of Dhalai district. DDT is being sprayed to reduce mosquito menace in the malaria prone areas. In addition, awareness programmes are being organized. Particularly, publicity vehicles are doing rounds of areas like Longtharai Valley, Manikpur, 23 Kilo, Chhamanu, Manu, Ambassa, Ganganagar etc. Publicity materials have also been put on display in such areas. This information has been given by the National Health Mission through a press release.