

e-Sewa Kendra opened at Kanchanpur today

Pic. by Bidya Mohan Jamatia, ICO

e-Sewa Kendra has been inaugurated at the court campus of Kanchanpur Judicial Magistrate today. Inaugurating the e-Sewa Kendra judge of Tripura High Court Subhasis Talapatra said, this e-Sewa Kendra has been opened to distribute benefits of justice as prescribed by the Constitution.

Through these e-Sewa Kendras people could easily get legal services. Among other dignitaries present on the occasion were judge of Tripura High Court S.G. Chattopadhyay, session judge S. Sharma Roy, subdivisional judicial magistrate Raja Gupta, SP, North Kiran Kumar K. and SDM of Kanchanpur Subhash Acharjee.

Foundation stone for synthetic football turf laid at Jirania

The state government, with the support of the central government, is continuously striving for developing sports infrastructure in every district of the state, stated the youth affairs and sports minister Sushanta Chowdhury yesterday after laying the foundation for a synthetic football turf at Sachindranagar High School in Jirania. He said, Rs. 5 crore will be spent to develop this synthetic turf and the work is expected to be completed by next three months, as informed by the construction company. He said, such synthetic turfs will be coming up at Umakanta Academy, Agartala and Mohanpur for which foundation stone will be laid very soon.

Pic. by Goutam Das, SIO

The minister said, besides these synthetic football turfs, 50 open gymnasium will be constructed and Rs. 5 crore will be spent on this. In addition, athletic turf will be constructed at Dasarath Deb stadium by spending Rs. 7 crore. A swimming pool will be constructed at Panisagar at the cost of over Rs. 6 crore. He said, the state government has launched a new scheme namely 'Khelo Tripura, Sustha Tripura' in order to revive the vanishing sports at Panchayat and Village Committee level.

Sabhadhipati of West Tripura Zilla Parishad Antara Sarkar Deb graced the occasion as the special guest. Among others present there included chairperson of Jirania Nagar Panchayat Ratan Kumar Das, vice chairman of Jirania Panchayat Samiti Pritam Debnath and other dignitaries, officials and students.

Fagun Mela inaugurated at Alapana Gram today

Under the aegis of information and cultural affairs department two-day Fagun Mela has started today at Alapana Gram or Lankamura. MLA Dr. Dilip Kumar Das has inaugurated the fair in presence of Mayor in Council of Agartala Municipal Corporation Jagadish Dash, member Mitrarani Majumder, director of ICA department Ratan Biswas and other dignitaries. MLA Dr. Dilip Kumar Das said, Alapana Gram can be referred to as an example of women empowerment and self-reliance. To economically empower this village further planned strategy should be adopted.

Administrative-cum-health camp in South Machamara village

An administrative-cum-health camp was organized by Kumarghat subdivisional administration at Ramdula JB School of South Machmara village under Pecharthal block today. As part of the camp, DM Uttam Kumar Chakma had interacted with the local people in presence of the representatives of different line departments. The administrative team also visited various development activities.

In the administrative-cum-health camp, 13 applications for PRTC, and 28 applications for ST certificate were received. Besides, on the basis of instant application, two income certificates were issued. Twenty-one patients had availed of health check-up and received medicines. Covid -19 vaccine was administered to six people. Animal resource development department offered health service to 820 animals and birds at the camp through which 31 animal rearing families have benefitted.

West district Loka Sanskriti Utsav held today

Pic. by Manimala Das, ICO

We all have to be careful and make efforts to preserve the folk culture of rural Bengal. Extinction of folk culture may have adverse impact on our society, said Antara Sarkar Deb, Sabhadhipati of West Tripura Zilla Parishad today after inaugurating the West district level Loka Sanskriti Utsav at Muktheadhar auditorium, Agartala. The festival has been organized by information and cultural affairs department. Mayor of Agartala Municipal Corporation Dipak Majumder graced the function as chief guest. Nine folk cultural teams from three subdivisions of the district have presented their folk based songs and dances.

Tinkering laboratory inaugurated at Rangamatia HS School

Besides imparting bookish knowledge to the students, Atal Tinkering Laboratory has been developed at the Rangamatia Higher Secondary School campus in Sonamura subdivision to facilitate hands on training on science and technology among the students. This tinkering lab was officially opened on March 17 by chairman of Nalchhar Panchayat Samiti Jawaharlal Ghosh.

Speaking on the occasion guests discussed about various aspects and significance of tinkering laboratory scheme. This tinkering laboratory has been constructed at the cost of Rs. 12 lakh under the initiative of NITI Aayog. This lab is equipped with telescope, 3-D printer, sewing machine and other science instruments.