

medicine specialists advised on keeping disease free health environment. A total of 19 persons voluntarily donated blood in that camp.

Skill development training provided to 60 women of Ambassa block

Training on tailoring and beauty parlour was imparted to 60 women with 30 women in each category recently. The two-month long training to these BPL women of Ambassa block had been provided by Dhalai district administration and district social welfare and social education office jointly under financial assistance of North-East Transmission Corporation Limited at Ambassa Panchayati Raj Training Institute (APTI).

At the concluding ceremony on December 7 the Social Welfare and Social Education Minister Santana Chakma was present and delivered speech regarding aim of the training. MLA Parimal Debbarma, ADM of Dhalai district Dilip Kumar Chakma, social activist Mridul Datta, Officer of North – East Transmission Corporation Limited Jyotimoy Barman were present in the programme. Minister Santana Chakma and MLA Parimal Debbarma handed over one sewing machine and equipment to each beneficiary who had undergone training on tailoring and parlour equipments to each of the trained woman having taken the beauty parlour course.

Mega Health camp at Mandai Girl's High School on Dec 12

A mega health camp will be organized by the health department at Mandai Girl's High school of Mandai block on December 12 at 10 A.M. Honorable Governor of Tripura Kaptan Singh Solanki will inaugurate the mega health camp. Gynaecologist, Ophthalmologist, Dentist, Pediatrician and Ayurvedic Doctor will check up the patients and provide medicine free of cost. In connection with this a preparatory meeting was held at Mandai Girl's High School on December 6 in presence of officers of various departments.

In the meeting, MLA Dharendra Debbarma, Addl. Secretary (Raj Bhavan) Ranjit Debbarma, additional DM of West District Tapan Chandra Das, BDOs of Mandai and Jirania blocks, officials of health, education, police, DWS, I&CA, horticulture etc departments were present. MLA Dharendra Debbarma appealed to all concerned for full cooperation to make the programme successful.