

buying furniture. At the same time employment opportunities will expand.

The Forest Minister Mewar Kumar Jamatia, TFDPC managing director D.K. Sharma, executive director of TFDPC Udbhav Tripura also spoke on the occasion. On this occasion four divisions of TFDPC were awarded for excellent performance. The awardee divisions were Pathalia Rubber Plantation Centre of Sadar division, Debbaru Rubber Plantation Centre of South-One Division, Amlighat Rubber Plantation Centre of South-two Division, and Bagaichari Rehabilitation Plantation Centre of North Division.

Activities under Integrated Watershed Management

Under Integrated Watershed Management Scheme betel nut, lemon, banana, pineapple and bamboo have been cultivated over 19.68 ha. area of three blocks namely Jirania, Hezamara and Mandai of West Tripura district during the 2018-19 financial year. Of the total area 6.24 ha. betel nut orchard, 2.88 ha. lemon, 1.6 ha. banana, 1.92 ha. pineapple and 3.04 ha bamboo cultivation was in Jirania block. In addition, eight water tanks, 205 concrete canals have been constructed and five mini-deep tube-wells have been installed. In Mandai area bamboo plantation, five water tanks, 205 metre concrete canal construction and two mini deep tube-well have been done over 1 ha. area. This information has been given from the West district office of agriculture and farmers' welfare department.

Administrative camp held at West Singirbil

Under the aegis of Kailashahar subdivisional administration an administrative-cum-health camp was held at West Singirbil JB School under Chandipur block on February 7. In the camp the subdivisional administration applications were received for 71 PRTC, 86 ST, 94 income certificates and 22 AADHAAR card. On the part of the health department necessary medicines were distributed after health check-up of 40 persons. Several officers including SDM Arindam Das were present in the camp.

Seven deep tube-wells in Lembuchera panchayat

With a view to ensuring pure drinking water seven mini deep tube-wells will be installed in Lembuchera gram panchayat under Bamutia block by spending fund received under the 14th Finance Commission. For implementing this work

