

country, declared the Governor. Terming this a historic scheme the Health Minister Sudip Roy Barman, as the guest of honour said, poor families will receive an annual coverage of upto Rs. 5 lakh under Jan Aarogya Yojana. The beneficiaries will receive Pradhan Mantri Jan Aarogya Yojana e-card from 62 government hospitals throughout the state.

Coinciding with the national and state level launch of Jan Aarogya Yojana the scheme was launched in Dhalai also yesterday at the DM office. Launching the scheme the DM Vikash Singh handed over golden e-card of this scheme to 13 beneficiaries of Ambassa and Kamalpur subdivisions. Similarly, Gomati district level launching programme was organized at the conference hall of Panchayati Raj Training Institute, Udaipur. MLA Rampada Jamatia was there to officially launch the scheme.

Preparatory meeting for observance of Poshan Maah in Khowai

In order to observe Rashtriya Poshan Maah across Khowai district a meeting was held today in the conference hall of DM and Collector's office. The meeting was chaired by the DM Rabindra Reang. After discussion it was decided in the meeting that seminar would be organized at district and block level involving PRI members. In addition, food and cooking competitions, tribal food festival, awareness campaign on eating nutritious food, sanitation and personal hygiene, anaemia screening camps for pregnant women and children (counseling and treatment) will be organized. Poshan Diwas will be observed in Ayush Hospital, dispensaries, primary health centres, and Poshan rally, gram sabha discussion will be held in gram panchayat and ADC villages. The meeting was also attended by ADM Uttam Mondal, district inspector of social education Sanjit Rupini and other officials of line departments.

Special Lok Adalat at Agartala on September 7

West Tripura District Legal Services Authority will organize a special Lok Adalat on October 7 in the premises of Chief Judicial Magistrate of West district at Agartala. 10 thousand chalans and various cases under Tripura Police Act will be presented in 7 courts for disposal. These Lok Adalats will continue from 10 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. West District Legal Services Authority requested all concerned persons to avail of advantages of Special Lok Adalat.

Street drama on nutrition and health at Charilam

As an act of observation of Rastriya Poshan Maah, street drama was organized by Sepahijala District Swachh Bharat Mission in association with information and cultural department and social welfare and social education department. The street dramas were held at Brajapur market, Lalsinghmura market, Bishramganj market and Charilam market. Awareness on various aspects of nutrition and health were presented through these street dramas. Huge spectators gathered to have views of every street drama. The artistes of Rabindra-Nazrul research centre of Charilam block performed took part in the street dramas.

Health camps organized in Gomati District

Health camps in eight places of Tirthamukh were organized recently by Tirthamukh PHC. In these camps, after treatment of 253 patients free of cost medicines were distributed among them. Moreover, blood samples of 34 patients were tested. The health camps were organized at Karaicherra, Nabaran Para, Rambhadra, Mandirghat, Dibachandra Para, Chaplencherra and Baidyacherra. On the other hand, under the aegis of Chandrapur PHC health camps were organized in six places during the previous month. A total of 123 patients were treated in those camps and necessary medicines were provided to them. Two health camps were also organized recently at Silghati and Amtali by Kakraban PHC. In those camps a total of 78 patients were treated and medicines were provided to them. This information has been given by the district office of the health department.

Programmes on World Tourism Day at Agartala

State level programme of World Tourism Day will be organized at Rabindra Satabarshiki Bhawan of Agartala on September 27. Theme of this year's World Tourism Day is 'Tourism and Cultural Protection'. For smooth observance of the World Tourism Day a preparatory meeting was held at the office of Tripura Tourism Development Corporation recently. In the meeting deputy general manager of Tripura Tourism Development Corporation Dilip Debbarma and other officials of the corporation along with the representatives of Tripura Tourism Development Forum and owners of various hotels were present.

It was decided in the meeting that as a part of celebration at Rabindra Satabarshiki Bhawan in the evening of September 27, seminar and cultural programme will be organized. Documentary film on various tourist spots of Tripura will be shown during the programme. On the other hand, as a part of ongoing 'Paryatan Parv' arrangement has been done for taking 100 children of two child homes of Agartala for free of cost visit to Sepahijala Wild Life Sanctuary

