

Importance to be given on implementation of central schemes for socio-economic development of tribes : CM

The Chief Minister Biplab Kumar Deb visited Ramsadhu Para under Ramsankar ADC Village of Hezamara Block on yesterday evening. During his visit MLA Brishaketu Debbarma was along with him. The villagers welcomed them there with flower bouquets. There the CM attended Laxmi Puja at the house of Bhim Debbarma and paid floral tribute to the goddess. After that the CM visited the village and heard various problems of the villagers. CM advised to MLA Brishaketu Debbarma to take initiatives for resolving the problems of the villagers. Afterwards, while speaking with the media CM informed that after visiting that village and interacting with the inhabitants it was known that previously there was no one to show them proper direction. Government is going to recruit 2200 jawans in two IR battalions. The local boys have been advised to prepare themselves for this. Piggery, cattle and poultry farms can be started, if required, by taking loans from banks under Pradhan Mantry Mudra Yojana. Necessary training can also be obtained so that they can make themselves self-reliant. The CM also informed the media that central Government has many schemes for the socio-economic development of the tribes. These schemes are to be utilized. For this, awareness has also to be generated among the tribes. The State government wants every family would self-reliant. Also the small villages would be self-reliant. Then only the State would emerge as a model State within upcoming three years. After the visit programme at Ramsadhu Para the CM visited MLA Brishaketu Debbarma's house situated at Nandabari and interacted with the villagers there.
