

Legal service camp at Behalabari: Making people aware of egal implications

Under the initiative of Tripura State Legal Services Authority (TSLSA) and with the help of Khowai subdivisional Legal Services Committee a legal service camp was held at the Behalabari ADC village office compound in Tulashikhar block yesterday. DM, Khowai, Pankaj Chakraborty graced the programme as the chief guest in presence of SP Kiran Kumar K. chief judge of Khowai sub-division Shubhra Nath, SDM Chandrani Chandan, member secretary of TSLSA Subhasis Sharma and other dignitaries.

Pic. By Dulal Debbarma, ICO

District and session judge Pankaj Kumar Datta informed that between November 21 and December 15 a total of 22 legal service camps would be organized in different parts of the state. Common people will be made aware about various legal implications through these camps. On December 1, a similar camp will be organized at Mungiakami H.S. School in Khowai district. Among others who spoke on the occasion included DM Pankaj Chakraborty and SP Kiran Kumar K. In this camp 335 birth certificates, 52 marriage registration certificates, 162 ST and 205 PRTC were provided. Free medicines were also distributed on behalf of the health department. Walking aids were given to two tribal dibyangans by the social welfare and social education department.

Tripura Day Celebration at Pragati Maidan

Tripura Day Celebration will be a special segment of this year's India International Trade Fair – 2019 at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi on November 25. The chief minister Biplab Kumar Deb will be inaugurating the programme in presence of other dignitaries like the Union minister of states for food processing Rameshwar Teli, MP Pratima Bhowmik and MP Rebati Tripura. The programme will be organized by Tripura Industrial Development Corporation. As part of Tripura Day celebration cultural programme will also be there.

Certificates & walking aids to be distributed on November 30

Under the aegis of West District Divyangan Rehabilitation Centre certificates and various walking aids will be distributed among the differently abled people at Choudhurybari Girls School in Jirania on November 30. Giving out further details Jirania SDM said, people whose monthly income is below Rs. 15,000 will be entitled to receive these facilities. People willing to avail of these facilities will have to come up with family ration card, voter ID, medical certificate, income certificate issued by DCM, MLA or Panchayat Pradhan. The programme will start at 10 am.

Winter vegetable cultivation over 150 ha area

Under the aegis of Khowai district horticulture and soil conservation office cabbage, cauliflower, tomato, chili, brinjal etc. winter vegetables in five agri-subdivisions under Mission for Integrated Development of Horticulture (MIDH). Through this 50 ha. area in Teliamura agri-subdivision (including Mungiakami block), 35 ha. in Khowai agri-subdivision, 15 ha. in Padmabil agri-subdivision and 25 ha. in Kalyanpur agri-subdivision will come under vegetable cultivation. Rs. 5000 will be spent on per 2 ha lan, informed the official of the horticulture and soil conservation department Kashinath Das.

Disaster management exercise held at Thaliltwisa community hall under Satchand block yesterday.

Pic. By Rupak Acharjee, ICO

Mega exercise on disaster management on Nov. 28

Mega mock exercise of disaster management will be held at five places of Sepahijala district at 10 am on November 28. Sepahijala district disaster management authority will organize these exercises. Five places to have these exercises will be – Bishalgarh block headquarters, Takarjala community health centre, Kathalia market, Chhechrimai High School and Sepahijala DM office compound. Decision about this was taken at a meeting held at the conference hall of Sepahijala DM yesterday. Representatives of NDRF, sub-divisional administration, fire service, health department, education, power, information and cultural affairs, DWS departments will be taking part in these exercises.