Chief Minister resolving problems of distressed at Mukyamantri Samipeshu program

Chief Minister Prof. (Dr.) Manik Saha once again extended a helping hand to citizens in need during the 39th episode of the Mukyamantri Samipeshu program, held at his official residence today. The weekly initiative provides a direct platform for people to voice their concerns on issues ranging from healthcare and employment to land disputes. Several individuals sought assistance for medical treatment, and the Chief Minister promptly assured support. Among them, Koel Sinha from Phultali, Kailashahar, who is undergoing treatment at Mumbai's Tata Memorial Hospital for a bone marrow transplant, received assurance of financial aid from the state government. Her father, a TSR jawan, had appealed for help due to the high cost of treatment. Similarly, Biplab Das from AD Nagar, Agartala, sought assistance for his wife's thalassaemia treatment. The Chief Minister directed officials to extend financial aid through the Scheduled Caste Welfare Department. Ranabir Acharjee from Pal Para, Amtali, who required medical assistance for his daughter, received immediate attention, with the CM personally instructing the Medical Superintendent of GB Hospital to take necessary steps. In another case, Bishnupriya Sutradhar from South Joynagar requested financial aid for her daughter. The CM directed the Social Welfare and Social Education Department to provide the necessary allowance. The program also saw appeals from Partha Pratim Roy of Bordowali, Babu Lal Debnath from west Khupilong, Killa, Sathi Rani Pal a resident of Joynagar, Agartala, Priyanka Bhattacharya a resident of Krishnanagar and Kaberi Dev from Sukanta Palli, Kumarghat and many more asks for medical assistance. The Chief Minister, after reviewing their documents, instructed GB Hospital and Atal Bihari Vajpayee Regional Cancer Hospital to take necessary action. Key officials present at the event included Dr. PK Chakraborty, Secretary to the CM, Kiran Gitte, secretary of Health & Family Welfare, Tapas Roy, Secretary of Social Welfare & Social Department, Dr. Vishal Kumar, West Tripura DM and Collector, Dr. Sankar Chakraborty, Medical Superintendent of GB Hospital and Dr. S. Debbarma, Medical Superintendent of Atal Bihari Vajpayee Regional Cancer Hospital.
